

Ashishkumar Chauhan
Deputy Chief Executive Officer
Bombay Stock Exchange

Ashish (43) works as the Deputy CEO of the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE), Asia's first stock exchange. BSE is ranked 1st in the world in terms of number of stocks listed, 5th in the world in terms of number of trades per day and 9th in the world in terms of market capitalization. In addition, Ashish serves as the CEO and Managing Director of Indian Clearing Corporations Limited (ICCL), a 100% subsidiary of the BSE.

Ashish also serves on the Board of Directors of Central Depository Services Limited (CDSL), United Stock Exchange of India Limited (USE), Bank of India Shareholding Limited (BOISL), BSE Training Institute Limited (BTI) and Marketplace Technologies Limited.

Ashish has served on several government and regulatory committees on pro-bono basis. Currently, he serves on Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT), PNG on Information Technology, Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI)'s Primary Market Advisory Committee (PMAC) and Forward Markets Commission (FMC)'s Risk Management Advisory Committee amongst others.

Ashish teaches finance, use of Information technology and several other subjects at universities in India and abroad. Ashish has spoken at important international and Indian industry events on various topics of interest.

Ashish has contributed to many books, newspapers, magazines and journals on the subject of Information technology, market microstructure, financial sector policies, automation of markets, creation of indices etc. He and his writings have been widely quoted in magazines, academic journals and trade journals in India and abroad.

Ashish holds a B Tech in Mechanical Engineering from IIT Bombay (1989) and MBA from IIM Calcutta (1991).