

Augusto Castellanos
Programme Director, Government Affairs
Proexport Colombia

Deputy Director of the Proexport Intelligence Unit since 2010. Under his leadership the unit developed a new methodology to segment potential investors that may be interested to invest in the country. The Foreign Direct Investment attraction strategy of Proexport Colombia, as Government body who is responsible of the promotion of the country in both fields is backed on the research of Augusto's team.

Before, Augusto was Investment Specialist focus on pharma, investment funds, and IT. His professional career includes experience in the Senate of Colombia, being economist advisor of former Senator Gina Parodi.

He is Master in Economy from Universidad de los Andes and (B.A) in Economics from same university. Speaks Spanish, English and Italian.