

Martijn Geerling
Director, Advisory Services, Europe, Middle-East, Africa & Asia (EMEA)
The Hackett Group

Martijn Geerling is a Senior Advisor for The Hackett Group for Europe, Middle-East, Africa & Asia (EMEA) practice and regional leader of the Global Business Services (GBS) Advisory program. He has over 12 years of professional services experience focused on back-office performance improvement through transformation strategy development and implementation of shared services and outsourcing in back-office functions.

With a background in Management Consulting, his core areas of expertise are in organisational re-design, supporting clients in re-aligning Finance and other back-office function operations to more efficiently support company's objectives. Mr Geerling has successfully consulted with global clients in sustainable strategic transformation engagements in Europe, United States and Asia.