

Piyush Singh
Senior VP & CIO
Great American Insurance Company

Piyush Singh is currently Senior Vice-President/CIO of Great American Insurance Company and Vice-President of its parent company, American Financial Group. Mr. Singh has successfully led an ambitious and large scale transformation of Great American Insurance's operative platform and more importantly, has influenced the philosophy of doing business. He regards himself as a transformational and business-savvy CIO.

Piyush is currently on the Board of KARNA, American Red Cross of Greater Cincinnati, ArtsWave, INTERAlliance and Riverview East Academy Community PTO. He is on the Advisory Boards of Violin (a solid-state storage company), University of Cincinnati College of Business IS program, Bradley University National Council of Advisors for College of Business, Ohio CIO Executive Summit and CIO Institute at the University of Chicago. He is a past Board member of International Association of Systems and Accounting (IASA).

Piyush received the "Elite 8" award from Insurance and Technology and was one of the "Top 10 CIO Breakaway Leader" at the Global CIO Executive Summit. He also has the adventurer spirit in him and hiked all the way to the top of Mt. Kilimanjaro in 2010.
