

Shyama A. Bijapurkar
Group Head
Global Finance Centres
HSBC

Shyama joined HSBC in June 2008 and is responsible for the establishment and management of the Global Finance Centres (GFC) in Gurgaon, Hyderabad, Krakow, and London. She is a member of the Finance Management Board.

Shyama joined HSBC from American Express, where she spent over 8 years, the last 3 leading American Express Finance Centre with teams in Delhi and Phoenix. Prior to that, she spent almost 11 years with ANZ Grindlays Bank and undertook a wide range of roles in their Corporate and Investment Bank. On the Banking side, she was responsible for managing banking needs for large corporates in India specially in the Telecom and Power sectors. On the markets side, she was involved in several structured loan syndications and capital market debt and equity placement transactions for corporate customers. In her last role with ANZ Gringlays Bank as Head of Corporate Finance - North India, she managed the first privatization deal for the Government of India.

Shyama started her career with 20th Century Finance Corporation Ltd, the largest private sector leasing company in India and then spent a year with DSP Financial Consultants, an associate of Merrill Lynch.

Shyama received her Master of Business Administration in 1986 from the Faculty of Management Studies, Delhi University.