Shomiron Das Gupta

Founder
NETMONASTERY NSPL

Shomiron is a highly experienced Intrusion Analyst, and has been building threat detection systems for more than a decade. He founded NETMONASTERY (NM) at the end of 2002, and set out to deliver quality attack detection products and services to its customers. Shomiron has the experience of building detection strategies for the most advanced security operations centers in the world.

NM also owns one of the leading big data analytics platforms in dnif.it, this platform serves several industries like healthcare, insurance, transport, banking and media.

Today NM works with happy customers and partners in more than 14 countries.

Outside work he is a trained mountaineer with expedition experience in the high Himalayas.