

Amit Jaju

Partner & Head - Forensic Technology & Discovery Services
EY

Amit Jaju is a Partner with Fraud Investigation & Dispute Services of EY India and head of forensic technology & discovery services in India. He is also the markets lead for Forensic Technology across EMEA.

He specializes in delivering Forensic Technology, Data Analytics, Cybercrime and Software License Compliance/ IP infringement investigation solutions for clients across industry verticals, though he specializes around Financial Services, Information Technology, Media & Entertainment.

Amit is considered the SME for Cybercrime, Software License Forensics and Data Analytics solutions across industry verticals. Prior to joining Ernst & Young LLP, Mr. Jaju was the Forensic technology lead with other Big 4 firm in India for 4 years.

Amit is a guest columnist with Mint newspaper and many of his articles have been published in the Economic times, Data Quest and his study around data theft is published in the course curriculum at Cambridge University. He has conducted webinars for ACFE and presented at the BankSec conference on recent trends in IT Security in Banking sector.

He has also been invited as a guest speaker by industry bodies such as Confederation of Indian Industries, Institute of Internal Auditors, Bombay Chambers of Commerce, Indo-German Chambers of Commerce, and on other events to speak on topics such as Data leakage prevention, software and Intellectual Property compliance, Information security, forensic technology etc.

Mr. Jaju holds a master's degree in information technology from Virginia Tech USA and an MBA from SPJIMR India. He is a certified fraud examiner (CFE) and a Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA).