

Subrahmanya Gupta Boda*Global Chief Information Security Officer (CISO)
EC-Council

Subrahmanya Gupta Boda (in short Gupta Boda) is Global Chief Information Security Officer (CISO) of EC-Council, a global cyber security training and certification programs provider.

Based in Hyderabad, India, he is responsible for overall information security, governance, compliance and risk management.

In his previous role as Group CISO of GMR Infrastructure, a large Indian Infrastructure major, was responsible for information security across the group and prior to that he worked close to 14 years with India unit of Mercedes Benz Research and Development as Head of IT services, information security and application testing. He had started his professional career with Central Research Laboratory, Ghaziabad - a division of Bharat Electronics Ltd. Overall, Boda has over two decades of industry experience largely in the information security / information technology domain. He holds a Bachelors Degree in Electronics and Communications Engineering from Andhra University and Masters Degree in Software Systems from BITS Pilani. He is a senior member of IEEE and has been also honoured with Paul Harris Fellow by Rotary International.