

Welcome to TechQuest 2018

We at Quiz'D are some curious enthusiasts who ventured into this journey to engage our minds and incite them to ask the right questions. We are in no way more knowledgeable or accomplished than our amazing audience today, however for the exciting competition we are about to have ahead, we welcome you aboard.

Format of the Quiz

- ❖ Preliminary Round – Level 1 : A series of questions on the themes of NATC namely, Intelligent Automation, Immersive Experience, Architecture, Block chain and Platforms will be thrown at you one at a time, questions will appear on the screen as well as will be read it out by the Quiz Master
 - ❖ A correct answer will fetch you 2 Points
 - ❖ A wrong answer will deduct -1 Point (Negative)

If your team wishes to answer, you write down the Answer in Block Letters on your writing Pad and raise your Team Placard immediately for the nearest TechQuest volunteer to identify your team number and reach out to you.

Your rank in the leaderboard will reflect the total points you have scored throughout the Prelims.

- ❖ Preliminary Round – Level 2 : Similar format of questions as in round 1, however expect the intensity to be more tough and tricky. You would also be looking at a major reshuffle to the race in the leaderboard because the scoring pattern is a bit of a gamble here.
 - ❖ A correct answer will fetch you 6 Points
 - ❖ A wrong answer will deduct -2 Point (Negative)

It is a make or break round for the subsequent final round as only the Top 6 teams in the Leaderboard make it to the Final Rounds.

- ❖ Final Round – Level 3 : Teams reaching the finals are in for some serious business. However if you haven't made it to the Finals, you have got a chance to win some grand prizes on exclusive audience questions. For every audience question correctly answered, you win Rs. 2500 Gift Vouchers. So play along and if the lady luck finds you, expect to be handsomely rewarded.

For the Top 6 Finalists, the scores have been reset. What is to follow are 4 exciting rounds to decide the ultimate champions of TechQuest 2018. They are:

Round 1

The Everyday Round (General Round)

Questions will be asked to each team by turn and Incorrect or No Answer will result the question to be passed. Teams to score

- ❖ +30 Points on Direct Correct Answer
- ❖ +10 Points on Pass Correct Answer
- ❖ 0 Points on Incorrect or No Answer

Round 2

The Differential Round

Questions will be thrown at all teams. And all 6 teams need to pounce on the answer. No answers on the mic for this one, but you have to write it on the pad in front of you.

Every Question is of 60 Points each and the points will be divided amongst the teams giving the correct answer

	No of Teams Answered Correctly
Score	6 Teams	5 Teams	4 Teams	3 Teams	2 Teams	1 Team
	10 Points Each	12 Points Each	15 Points Each	20 Points Each	30 Points Each	60 Points Each

This is also a Knockout Round, which means the last 2 teams get eliminated and the top 4 teams move on to Round 3.

Round 3

The Gamble Round

This round gives a chance to settle some old records.

Here each team on its own turn, would choose as to which of the other 3 teams the question should be thrown at.

- ❖ In-case the target team is able to answer the challenge correctly then
 - Target Team is awarded +40 Points
 - Challenger Team is deducted -10 Points.
- ❖ However, in the case the Target Team gets it wrong
 - Target team penalized with -10 Points
- ❖ Question is back to the Challenger Team and they get a chance to answer it.
 - Correct fetches them +40 Points
 - Incorrect penalizes them with -10 Points

Each team gets 3 Questions to throw at each of the 3 Teams.

A challenge direction cannot be repeated (For eg. if A has asked a question to B, then the next question can be directed to only C or D and not B anymore)

This is also a Knockout Round, which means the last 2 teams get eliminated and the top 2 teams move on to Round 4.

Round 4

The Tech Tac Toe Round

This is a duel round between the best two teams of TechQuest 2018.

Rules and Format are to be revealed on the stage.

You would have to hold out till this moment to watch the nail biting finish.

The Winner takes it all.

Audience Questions

Between each of the 4 rounds we have a total of 8 Audience Questions which are 2500/- each so there are some serious incentives to stay back.
