

Pravin Goel
Managing Director, Country Head
BlackRock

Pravin Goel, Managing Director, is the Country Head for India. He is a member of the India Executive Committee, APAC Executive Committee and Human Capital Committee..

Pravin joined the firm in 2012. In past, he was responsible for Risk Management and Capital Markets trading systems at sell-side. He has worked across UK, US, India and started his career building mobile apps and device drivers for Windows CE platform. He has been part of the core engineering teams at a few California start-ups as well as Technology consulting across various domains including consumer finance, education and healthcare.

Pravin earned a Computers Engineering degree from Delhi Institute of Technology in 1998.