Hari Bhaskar Shankarnarayanan
Director Engineering
Amadeus Labs

Hari is a researcher, writer and technologist. He is currently pursuing his PhD at IIIT Bangalore in the area of travel systems domain specifically on software architectures. Hari is currently associated with Amadeus Labs, Bangalore as Director of Engineering leading the search, shopping and pricing teams. Hari has 16 plus years of industry experience.

Hari's expertise include development of e-commerce, banking, financial, ERP and travel systems. He has extensive experience of working across various cultures including south East Asia, UK, US and France. Hari is passionate about delivering value to customers through software products. He has 2 patents publications in the areas of voice recognition, classification and mobile app development for enterprise scale.

He has 11 publications to his name in the areas of online privacy, microservices architecture, natural language processing and online travel reviews across IEEE, Elsevier, IISC and Indian Statistical Institute conferences. He is PMP and TOGAF Enterprise Architecture certified professional. Hari's interest area include machine learning, information retrieval, business intelligence, software architecture, design patterns, agility and project management."

Linkedin: https://in.linkedin.com/in/haribhaskar